Govt. order No. G 16146 -195 / Fin 584-16-1 of 28th May 1917 raising the cadre of Asst: Comrs. to 80 provides for a scale of three Under Secretaries to Govt. in the General & Rev. Secretariat as follows:-

2 Under Secretaries

1 Asst. or Under Secy on duty with the Dewan

2. There are at present only two Under Secretaries in the Secretariat, — one in charge of Branch V and the other on duty with the Dewan — the appointments of Messrs. N. Madhava Rao & M. G. Ramaiya as Under Secretaries being outside the fixed scale.

3. One of the Senior Asst. Secretaries may therefore be appointed Under Secretary. The Senior Officer eligible for the post is Mr. B. Srinivasa Iyengar, who is in charge of Branch II. If this is sanctioned he can draw the enhanced local allowance of Rs. 75/- per mensem provided for Under Secretaries in the G.O. of 13th October 1917 relating to the reorganization of the General & Revenue Secretariat.

4. It is also a point for consideration whether Mr. S. Krishnamaiya, Private Secretary to the Dewan, who is now drawing a pay of Rs. 500/- as Subordinate Judge (seconded) and who has been allowed to draw daily allowance on the scale fixed for Under Secretaries may not be treated as Under Secretary and given the benefit of the enhanced local allowance.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Serial No.

5. The appointment of the Private Secretary to the Dewan is outside the cadre of Asst. Comrs. Mr. Hiriyannaiya is now drawing Rs. 50/- p.m. as local allowance, not as an Asst: or Under Secretary, but as Private Secretary. Seeing that Under Secretaries are now allowed to draw Rs. 75/- as local allowance, Mr. Hiriyannaiya may also be allowed to draw a similar allowance.

Date - 19.11.17

(Chief Secy) 19/11/17

6. The request is reasonable.

7. The local allowance may be fixed at 75 Rs in cases where the pay of the office is 450 Rs & above.

(Secy to Govt) 11/12/17 19/11/17

9) (1) I agree that Mr. B. Srinivasaraya may be appointed Under Secy in the existing vacancy.

10) (2) The emoluments of P.S.D. are fixed under art 56 A M.S.R. which does not require any change in my opinion. The cost of the Pte Secy's appt at present is already higher than what is contemplated in that article.

12. This seems to be a case worthy of favourable consideration. In the matter of these local allowances it is not desirable to make arbitrary distinctions between one officer and another who are of similar status in other respects.

13. When Art 56 A was formulated it was not perhaps thought that a fairly senior officer would be employed as Private Secretary to the Dewan, and even as Art 56 A stands the proviso to it takes away the limit of total emoluments in cases like the present.

NOTE.—Contn. sheet.

W. D. 135—GPB—200—29-7-15

Submitted to His Highness.

Under Government Order dated 28th May 1917, sanctioning a revised scale of appointments of Assistant Commissioners in the several departments of the State, ten Assistant Commissioners are provided for the General and Revenue Secretariat and of these, not more than 3

2 Under Secretaries for the Secretariat proper.	may be of the status of an Under Secretary to Government. In Government Order dated 13th October 1917, relating to the re-organization of the General and Revenue Secretariat, the local allowance of the Under Secretaries was raised from Rs.50 to Rs.75.
1 Assistant or Under Secretary on duty with the Dewan.

2. Besides Mr. S. P. Rajagopalachar, Under Secretary on duty with the Dewan, there is at present only one other Under Secretary, Mr. T. E. Jayarama Iyer, in the Secretariat, the appointments of Messrs N. Madhava Rao and M.G. Rangiah as Under Secretaries being outside the regular scale. There is therefore provision to have one more Under Secretary in the office and Mr. B. Srinivasa Iyengar, Assistant Secretary in charge of the Financial Branch, is by seniority eligible to the appointed as an Under Secretary in the vacancy.

3. In this connection, the question has also been raised as to whether Mr. S. Hiriyannaiya, Private Secretary to the Dewan, who is now drawing a pay of -- Rs.500 as Subordinate Judge (seconded) may not be allowed to draw the enhanced rate of local allowance of Rs.75 (instead of the local allowance of Rs.50 he is now drawing recently sanctioned to Under Secretaries. The appointment of the Private Secretary is outside the cadre of Assistant Commissioners and, in view of the present incumbent being an officer of a higher status than that of an Assistant Commissioner, he has already been permitted to draw daily allowance at the rates allowed to Under Secretaries to Government.

4. The questions were considered in Council on the 4th April 1918 and the Council are of opinion that -

(i) the local allowance of Mr. Hiriyannaiya may be increased to Rs.75 per mensem; and that

(ii) the question of appointing Mr. B. Srinivasa Iyengar as an Under Secretary to Government, need not be considered now, as it has been separately proposed to appoint him as a Deputy Comptroller to Government.

5. The Financial Secretary, however, considers that the emoluments of the Private Secretary to the Dewan are already higher than those contemplated under article 56 A, Mysore Service Regulations and that consequently no enhancement of local allowance is called for.

6. But when Article 56 A was formulated, it was not perhaps thought that a senior official like Mr. Hiriyannaiya would be employed as Private Secretary and, even as the Article stands at present, the proviso to it takes away the limit to total emoluments in cases like the present. If Mr. Hiriyannaiya were in the Secretariat proper, he would be an Under Secretary and entitled to a local allowance of Rs.75 per mensem and it is not desirable to make arbitrary distinctions between one officer and another of similar status, in the matter of these local allowances.

7. The opinion of the Council may therefore be graciously approved.

I beg to resubmit the file as directed in person -

Mr B. Srinivasiengar will be entitled to an Underdenlags allce from 13-10-17 - (since there has been a vacancy from that date) & the question of framing Mr Srinivasiengar's allce to Dewan's allce from the same date deserves reconsideration

The Financial Secy's view that "in the absence of Special orders the allce will take effect from date of order" is no doubt correct as representing the ordinary rule, but I think there is quite enough justification for "Special orders" giving the allce from 13-10-17.

As the allowance has been drawn by all the other officers with effect from the 13th October 1917, it would be inviduous to exclude the Private Secretary from the operation of the general rule. He may also be given from the same date, if there be no financial objection.

The case of Mr. B. Srinivasiengar may be dealt with separately.
